

This overzealous, overreaching fine mechanism that is eliminating long standing comedians from the radio airwaves is stepping all over free speech. Although some reasonable standards should apply, to suddenly begin levying huge fines is obviously the FCC responding to undue pressure rather than following the US constitution. I urge you to strongly reconsider your methods!